2. Roughly how many hours did you spend on Be ©reative, in lessons and in your own time, researching and producing your campaign? 56 hours

3. What do you think the term 'copyright' means? please tick all that apply

- □ It means that you are allowed to copy other people's work or ideas
- □ It protects your work and ideas from being copied
- □ It means you do not need permission to use other people's material
- It enables the creator to decide who can use their work

Don't know

□ Other (please write in): ..... .....

4. How much do you agree with the following things when thinking about Be ©reative overall?

Rate between 1 and 10, where 1=completely disagree and 10=agree very much

- Made me think about what it takes to create something 9
- □ Made me more protective of my own creative work and ideas 9
- □ Made me think more about the consequences of when people copy other people's creative work 10
- □ It has made me more interested in the film and TV industry 5
- Gave me a new found respect for the TV and film industry and what goes into making film and TV I enjoy 9
- □ Made me less likely to watch/access unauthorised/unofficial version of film and TV programmes/series 9

- □ Made me want to be original and have new ideas 10
- □ Made me less likely to copy other people's creative work 10
- □ Made me more interested in what goes on behind the scenes in the film and TV industry 9
- Made me realise all the hard work from a large number of people behind the scenes that goes into creating a film or a TV show 9
- Made me realise that accessing unofficial film and TV is copying and is not fair on the people who created it 10
